WINE ENTHUSIAST – 95 pts. - Editors' Choice “Fragrant purple flower, red berry and wild herb aromas mingle in the glass together with a whiff of camphor. Tightly wound and linear, the youthfully austere palate shows crushed raspberry, Marasca cherry and star anise framed in taut, tightly knit tannins and bright acidity.”

ANTONIO GALLONI - VINOUS - 92 pts - The 2019 Barbaresco is classy, elegant and polished. In other words, everything Barbaresco can and should be. Rose petal, bright red fruit, orange peel and cinnamon all grace this exquisite Barbaresco from Cortese. It's a gorgeous wine in every way.

WINE ADVOCATE – 92 pts- “Here's a good value from Piedmont. The Giuseppe Cortese 2019 Barbaresco is fine and silky with determined aromas of dried fruit, pressed rose, licorice and crushed stone. The wine shows classic Nebbiolo aromas in a simple manner and with just enough complexity to underline the distinct personality of this special grape.”

JAMES SUCKLING – 92 pts. Lovely aromas of strawberry, cherry and orange leaf. Mediumbodied with fine and polished tannins and pretty tension and focus. Needs a year or two to open, but already attractive. Drink or hold.

MatthewJukes- Piemonte report- 17/20 Fresh and juicy with a smooth mid-palate and only brief moments of spice and furry cheek details, this is a forward wine with an accurate feel, and it should be drunk by those curious about this region because it performs the perfect task of explaining Nebbiolo and its shape and size in Barbaresco while at the same time being a rather succulent little wine.
