

BARBARESCO RABAJA 2020

Recensioni e premi - Press and awards

Kerin O'Keefe – 97 pts . “Made from fifty-year old vines, the compelling Giuseppe Cortese 2020 Rabajà is one of the best wines of the vintage. It opens with perfumed berry, fragrant purple flower and vineyard dust. It's absolutely delicious, delivering Jolly Rancher cherry, strawberry compote and baking spice flavors before an almost salty mineral finish. It's structured and full-bodied, with tightly knit tannins while fresh acidity keeps it balanced. Drink 2026–2039

ANTONIO GALLONI – VINOUS 95 pts The wine is a total knock-out. Dark, layered and mysterious, the wine is pure seduction. All the elements are so well put together for a young Barbaresco. Black cherry, kirsch, lavender, spice and dried herbs all build in a super classical wine that deliver the goods, Don't miss it.

JAMES SUCKLING – 94 pts. Notes of raspberries, blood orange, ground spices and tree bark. Medium-bodied with juicy acidity, polished tannins and vivid red fruit character. Savory and pure with a supple finish and spiced citrus peel undertones to it. Better from 2025.

Robert Parker - WINE ADVOCATE 93 pts “With earthy notes and some rusty tones, the 2020 Barbaresco Rabajà shows generous fruit flavors from a warm growing season. The wine is open and immediate, requiring not much in terms of waiting time. In fact, it is showing very nicely at this young age with cherry, earth and rose-like aromas to close.”

Falstaff – 93 pts

Jancis Robinson- by Walter Speller. 16,5 PTS Lustrous mid ruby; balsamic rather than fruity. A hint of fennel. A core of soft strawberry fruit framed by firm, chewy tannins. Drink 2023 – 2028
